HERRING's PATENT; Also, WILDER's —SALAMANDER SAFES.—There are but few who have not, even within their own experience, witnessed distressing effects produced in the sudden destruction by fire of valuables which cannot be replaced, but might have been preserved at a trifling expense, in the purchase of one of the Salar-ander Fire-proof Safes—once possessed serves as a Sub-Tressury and a perpetual policy of insurance to the amount of its contents.

In the year 184 the subscriber purchased the exclusive right (for the State of New-York) to make and wond Wilder's celebrated Patent Salamander Safe, and is the only person who has the rightto authorize others to make, sell or nee, or to institute suits at law against any infringement upon said patent in the State.

Having recently obtained a patent for a Safe called Herring's Fire-Froof, which, upon its own merics, forms the most perfect Fire and Damp-Proof Safe ever offered to the public, being superior to Wilder's Patent, which was first introduced by the subscriber, and has proved to be the best Safe in market up to the introduction of Herring's Patent Fire-Froof. These Safes are now offered as the Champion Safe of the World; and I repeat my challenge, trapply to these Safes as well as to Wilder's which I continue to furnish to the public, for a fair and impartial trial before a disinterested committee of respectable citizens, as published benetofore by me in the city and coantry newspapers, and issued daily in hundbills at the Iron Safe Depot, corner of Water and Pine-sts. All persons are cantioned arninst making, wending or using (each being equally liable) Herring's Fire-Proof Salamander Safe, as no good title can be given in the United States unless purchased from me or my agents.

Having purchased the patent for the manufacturing and formishing Hall's celebrated Prowder-Proof Lock, (the key no larger than a tooth-pick,) for which a medal was awarded at the World's Fair, London, and now so much in favor with the public, which it so deservedly merits, being the l
